Case No. 1:24-mc-27 (LEK/CFH)

STIPULATED PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

This matter comes before the Court upon the stipulation of all parties, including Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), and defendants Empire Holdings Group, LLC, dba Ecommerce Empire Builders and Storefunnels.net, and Peter Prusinowski, aka Peter Pru (collectively, "Defendants") for the entry of a stipulated preliminary injunction as to all Defendants.

WHEREAS, on September 18, 2024, Plaintiff, the FTC, filed its Complaint for Permanent Injunction, Monetary Judgment, and Other Relief (Document No. 1) pursuant to Sections 13(b) and 19 of the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 53(b), 57b; the FTC's Trade Regulation Rule entitled "Disclosure Requirements and Prohibitions Concerning Business Opportunities" ("Business Opportunity Rule"), 16 C.F.R. Part 437, as amended; and the Consumer Review Fairness Act of 2016 ("CRFA"), 15 U.S.C. § 45b, and moved, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b), for a temporary restraining order, asset freeze, other equitable relief, and order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue against Defendants (Document No. 19).

WHEREAS, on September 20, 2024, after a hearing, the Court entered a Temporary Restraining Order against Defendants that includes an injunction, asset freeze, and appointment of a temporary receiver over the Receivership Entities (as defined below). (Document No. 19). Each of the above-named Defendants has been properly served with a summons, the Complaint, and the Temporary Restraining Order, and Plaintiff and Defendants stipulate to the entry of this Stipulated Preliminary Injunction.

WHEREAS, Plaintiff and Defendants negotiated and reached a stipulation as to the form of such a Preliminary Injunction.

THEREFORE, IT IS STIPULATED AND ORDERED as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Court, having considered the Complaint, the Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order, declarations, exhibits, and the memorandum of points and authorities filed in support thereof, and being otherwise advised, finds that:

A. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, and there is good cause to believe that it will have jurisdiction over all parties hereto and that venue in this District is proper.

B. In numerous instances, Defendants, in the advertising, marketing, and selling of their self-study programs and business opportunities (Defendants' Products and Services), with Plaintiff alleging they have violated the FTC Act and rules governing their conduct. Specifically, Defendants have (1) made false, misleading, or unsubstantiated earnings claims, (2) violated multiple trade regulation rule provisions in selling Defendants' Products and Services, and (3) violated the law by using non-disparagement clauses to discourage purchasers from publishing truthful reviews about Defendants and Defendants' Products and Services.

C. There is good cause based on Plaintiff's allegations to believe that Defendants have engaged in and are likely to engage in acts or practices that violate Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a); the FTC's Trade Regulation Rule entitled "Disclosure Requirements and Prohibitions Concerning Business Opportunities" ("Business Opportunity Rule" or "Rule"), 16 C.F.R. Part 437, as amended; and the Consumer Review Fairness Act ("CRFA"), 15 U.S.C. § 45b, and the Plaintiff is therefore likely to prevail on the merits of this action. As demonstrated by the evidence contained in the FTC's exhibits, the FTC established a likelihood of success in showing that Defendants have made false, misleading, or unsubstantiated statements; engaged in other unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the advertising, marketing, and sale of Defendants' Products and Services; and violated the Business Opportunity Rule and CRFA.

D. There is good cause to believe that Defendants have taken at least $14 million from consumers in connection with their unlawful practices.

E. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable harm will result from Defendants' ongoing violations of the FTC Act, the Business Opportunity Rule, and the CRFA unless Defendants are restrained and enjoined by order of this Court.

F. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for consumers—including monetary restitution, rescission, or refunds—will occur from the sale, transfer, destruction, or other disposition or concealment by Defendants of their assets or records, unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by order of this Court.

G. Good cause exists for continuing the appointment of the Receiver, Kevin Dooley

Kent, over the Receivership Entities, continuing the freeze on Defendants' Assets, permitting Plaintiff and the Receiver immediate access to the Defendants' business premises, permitting Plaintiff and the Receiver to take expedited discovery, and the other ancillary relief set forth in this Order.

H. Weighing the equities and considering Plaintiff's likelihood of ultimate success on the merits, a preliminary injunction with an asset freeze, the continued receivership, expedited discovery, and other equitable relief is in the public interest.

I. This Court has authority to issue this Order pursuant to Sections 13(b) and 19 of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 53(b); Fed. R. Civ. P. 65; and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651.

J. The FTC is an independent agency of the United States, and no security is required of any agency of the United States for issuance of a preliminary injunction. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).

K. Nothing in this Stipulated Preliminary Injunction prohibits or precludes Defendants from raising any defenses, and this Order is not a waiver by Defendants of any outstanding motions or defenses they may raise during the pendency of this action.

XVI. COOPERATION WITH THE RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants; Receivership Entities; Defendants' or Receivership Entities' officers, agents, employees, and attorneys; all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them; and any other person with possession, custody, or control of property of or records relating to the Receivership Entities who receive actual notice of this Order shall fully cooperate with and assist the Receiver. This cooperation and assistance shall include, but is not limited to, providing information to the Receiver that the Receiver deems necessary to exercise the authority and discharge the responsibilities of the Receiver under this Order; providing any keys, codes, user names, and passwords required to access any computers, electronic devices, mobile devices, and machines (onsite or remotely) and any cloud account (including specific method to access account) or electronic file in any medium; advising all persons who owe money to any Receivership Entity that all debts should be paid directly to the Receiver; and transferring funds at the Receiver's direction and producing records related to the Assets and sales of the Receivership Entities.

XVII. NON-INTERFERENCE WITH THE RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants; Receivership Entities; Defendants' or Receivership Entities' officers, agents, employees, attorneys; and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order, and any other person served with a copy of this Order, are hereby restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly:

- B. Transacting any of the business of the Receivership Entities;

C. Transferring, receiving, altering, selling, encumbering, pledging, assigning, liquidating, or otherwise disposing of any Assets owned, controlled, or in the possession or custody of, or in which an interest is held or claimed by, the Receivership Entities; or

D. Refusing to cooperate with the Receiver or the Receiver's duly authorized agents in the exercise of their duties or authority under any order of this Court.

XVIII. STAY OF ACTIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, except by leave of this Court, during the pendency of the receivership ordered herein, Defendants; Defendants' officers, agents, employees, attorneys; and all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them, who receive actual notice of this Order; and their corporations, subsidiaries, divisions, or affiliates; and all investors, creditors, stockholders, lessors, customers, and other persons seeking to establish or enforce any claim, right, or interest against or on behalf of Defendants, and all others acting for or on behalf of such persons, are hereby enjoined from taking action that would interfere with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the Assets or Documents of the Receivership Entities, including, but not limited to:

A. Filing or assisting in the filing of a petition for relief under the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., or of any similar insolvency proceeding on behalf of the Receivership Entities;

B. Commencing, prosecuting, or continuing a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the Receivership Entities, including the issuance or employment of process against the Receivership Entities, except that such actions may be commenced if necessary to toll any applicable statute of limitations; or

C. Filing or enforcing any lien on any asset of the Receivership Entities; taking or attempting to take possession, custody, or control of any Asset of the Receivership Entities; or attempting to foreclose, forfeit, alter, or terminate any interest in any Asset of the Receivership Entities, whether such acts are part of a judicial proceeding, acts of self-help, or otherwise.

Provided, however, that this Order does not stay: (1) the commencement or continuation of a criminal action or proceeding; (2) the commencement or continuation of an action or proceeding by a governmental unit to enforce such governmental unit's police or regulatory power; or (3) the enforcement of a judgment, other than a money judgment, obtained in an action or proceeding by a governmental unit to enforce such governmental unit's police or regulatory power.

XIX. COMPENSATION OF RECEIVER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver and all personnel hired by the Receiver as herein authorized, including counsel to the Receiver and accountants, are entitled to reasonable compensation for the performance of duties pursuant to this Order and for the cost of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them, from the Assets now held by, in the possession or control of, or which may be received by, the Receivership Entities. The Receiver shall file with the Court and serve on the parties periodic requests for the payment of such reasonable compensation, with the first such request filed no more than sixty (60) days after the date of entry of this Order. The Receiver shall not increase the hourly rates used as the bases for such fee applications without prior approval of the Court.

XX. IMMEDIATE PRODUCTION OF BUSINESS RECORDS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that that the Corporate Defendant shall allow the Receiver and FTC's employees and agents access to the Corporate Defendant's business records to inspect and copy Documents to identify and locate assets.

The Corporate Defendant shall, immediately upon receiving notice of this Order, to the extent they have not already done so in compliance with the TRO previously issued (Document No. 19), produce to the FTC for inspection, inventory, and copying, at a location designated by FTC, the following materials: (1) all customer information, including names, phone numbers, addresses, e-mail addresses, customer complaints, and payment information for all consumers who have purchased Corporate Defendant's business opportunities and coaching services; (2) all contracts, including settlement agreements with customers; (3) any correspondence, including electronic correspondence, that refers or relates to the Corporate Defendant's business opportunities and coaching services; (4) an electronic copy of all advertisements for the Corporate Defendant's business opportunities and coaching services; (5) all telephone and videoconferencing scripts used during the sales process; (6) all slide decks, sales projections, charts, and spreadsheets used during the sales process; (7) all Documents pertaining to Earnings Claims and other representations related to the marketing, advertising, promotion, offer for sale, or sale of Defendants' business opportunities and coaching services, including substantiation for any Earnings Claims; and (8) accounting information, including profit and loss statements, annual reports, receipt books, ledgers, personal and business canceled checks and check registers, bank statements, appointment books, copies of federal, state or local business or personal income or property tax returns, and 1099 forms. The FTC shall return any materials produced pursuant to this Section within seven (7) days of the Corporate Defendant's production.

XXI. IMMEDIATE ACCESS TO BUSINESS PREMISES AND RECORDS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. In order to allow Plaintiff and the Receiver to preserve Assets and evidence relevant to this action and to expedite discovery, Plaintiff and the Receiver, and their representatives, agents, contractors, and assistants, shall have immediate access to any business premises and storage facilities, owned, controlled, or used by the Receivership Entities. Such locations include any offsite location or commercial mailbox used by the Receivership Entities. The Receiver may exclude Defendants, Receivership Entities, and their employees from the business premises during the immediate access.

B. Plaintiff and the Receiver, and their representatives, agents, contractors, and assistants, are authorized to remove Documents from the Receivership Entities' premises in order that they may be inspected, inventoried, and copied. Plaintiff shall return any removed materials to the Receiver within five (5) business days of completing inventorying and copying, or such time as is agreed upon by Plaintiff and the Receiver;

C. Plaintiff's access to the Receivership Entities' documents pursuant to this Section shall not provide grounds for any Defendant to object to any subsequent request for documents served by Plaintiff.

D. Plaintiff and the Receiver, and their representatives, agents, contractors, and assistants, are authorized to obtain the assistance of federal, state, and local law enforcement officers as they deem necessary to effect service and to implement peacefully the provisions of this Order;

E. If any Documents, computers, or electronic storage devices containing information related to the business practices or finances of the Receivership Entities are at a location other than those listed herein, including personal residence(s) of any Defendant, then, immediately upon receiving notice of this order, Defendants and Receivership Entities shall produce to the Receiver all such Documents, computers, and electronic storage devices, along with any codes or passwords needed for access. In order to prevent the destruction of computer data, upon service of this Order, any such computers or electronic storage devices shall be powered down in the normal course of the operating system used on such devices and shall not be powered up or used until produced for copying and inspection; and

F. If any communications or records of any Receivership Entity are stored with an Electronic Data Host, such Receivership Entity shall, immediately upon receiving notice of this order, provide the Receiver with the username, passwords, and any other login credential needed to access the communications and records, and shall not attempt to access, or cause a third-party to attempt to access, the communications or records.

XXII. DISTRIBUTION OF ORDER BY DEFENDANTS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants shall immediately provide a copy of this Order to each affiliate, telemarketer, marketer, sales entity, successor, assign, member, officer, director, employee, agent, independent contractor, client, attorney, spouse, subsidiary, division, and representative of any Defendant, and shall, within ten (10) days from the date of entry of this Order, provide Plaintiff and the Receiver with a sworn statement that this provision of the Order has been satisfied, which statement shall include the names, physical addresses, phone number, and email addresses of each such person or entity who received a copy of the Order.

Furthermore, Defendants shall not take any action that would encourage officers, agents, members, directors, employees, salespersons, independent contractors, attorneys, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, assigns, or other persons or entities in active concert or participation with them to disregard this Order or believe that they are not bound by its provisions.

XXIII. EXPEDITED DISCOVERY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, notwithstanding the provisions of the Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d) and (f) and 30(a)(2)(A)(iii), and pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(a), 33, 34, and 45, Plaintiff and the Receiver are granted leave, within 60 days of issuance of this Order, to conduct limited expedited discovery for the purpose of discovering: (1) the nature, location, status, and extent of Defendants' Assets; (2) the nature, location, and extent of Defendants' business transactions and operations; (3) Documents reflecting Defendants' business transactions and operations; or (4) compliance with this Order. The limited expedited discovery set forth in this Section shall proceed as follows:

A. Plaintiff and the Receiver may take the deposition of parties and non-parties. Forty-eight (48) hours' notice shall be sufficient notice for such depositions. The limitations and conditions set forth in Rules 30(a)(2)(A) and 31(a)(2)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure regarding subsequent depositions of an individual shall not apply to depositions taken pursuant to this Section. Any such deposition taken pursuant to this Section shall not be counted towards the deposition limit set forth in Rules 30(a)(2)(A) and 31(a)(2)(A), and depositions may be taken by telephone or other remote electronic means;

B. Plaintiff and the Receiver may serve upon parties requests for production of Documents or inspection that require production or inspection within five (5) days of service, provided, however, that three (3) days of notice shall be deemed sufficient for the production of any such Documents that are maintained or stored only in an electronic format.

C. Plaintiff and the Receiver may serve upon parties interrogatories that require response within five (5) days after Plaintiff serves such interrogatories;

D. Plaintiff and the Receiver may serve subpoenas upon non-parties that direct production or inspection within five (5) days of service;

E. Service of discovery upon a party to this action, taken pursuant to this Section, shall be sufficient if made by facsimile, email, or by overnight delivery.

F. Any expedited discovery taken pursuant to this Section is in addition to, and is not subject to, the limits on discovery set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court. The expedited discovery permitted by this Section does not require a meeting or conference of the parties, pursuant to Rules 26(d) and (f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

XXIV. SERVICE OF THIS ORDER

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that copies of this Order as well as the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and all other pleadings, Documents, and exhibits filed contemporaneously with that Motion (other than the complaint and summons), may be served by any means, including facsimile transmission, email, or other electronic messaging, personal or overnight delivery, U.S. Mail or FedEx, by agents and employees of Plaintiff, by any law enforcement agency, or by private process server, upon any Defendant, or any person (including any financial institution) that may have possession, custody, or control of any Asset or Document of any Defendant, or that may be subject to any provision of this Order pursuant to Rule 65(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. For purposes of this Section, service upon any branch, subsidiary, affiliate, or office of any entity shall effect service upon the entire entity.

XXVI. CORRESPONDENCE AND SERVICE ON PLAINTIFF

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for the purpose of this Order, all correspondence and service of pleadings on Plaintiff shall be addressed via email to Amanda Grier (agrier@ftc.gov) and Ryan McAuliffe (rmcauliffe@ftc.gov).
